

Brazil IT Investment Trends: Government

Quantitative and qualitative information on the trends and perspectives of IT investments in 2006 in the hardware, software, solutions, professional services in the government organizations.

- Delivered: Annual (Feb/06)
- Material delivered: Excel (.xls), presentation (.pdf) and report (.pdf)

IT Budget

- Perspective of growth for the IT Budget

Satisfaction with the installed base

- Level of satisfaction with the hardware installed base (printers, desktop, notebooks, servers, storage, network and mainframe) and software (security, storage and data base)
- Investments in hardware and software
- Upgrading of the installed base
- Migration trend of mainframes/servers platform

Priorities in IT solutions

- Investment in hardware, software and services per solution (ERP, CRM, BI, SCM, security, VoIP, free software, etc.)
- Priority modules, financial volume to be spent and motives for investment in solutions

Investments in professional services

IT services (consulting, development outsourcing, integration, support and training) which the companies will invest and outsource (help desk, network, datacenter, printing, BPO, applications, etc.).

Other contemplated subjects

- Two major projects of investment in IT expected for 2006 in the segment
- Initial investments of the segment

Verticals